

Gei Wai Harvesting at Mai Po Nature Reserve (1 Aug 2010, Sunday)

A Gei Wai Harvesting at Mai Po Nature Reserve is organized by HKIEIA in the evening on 1 Aug 2010 (Sunday). This visit is arranged with the assistance of the WWF-Hong Kong.

Gei wai shrimp cultivation is an important part of Hong Kong's coastal heritage. In this tour, you will see the most traditional way of shrimp farming and get to know how the harvesting takes place. You will also be able to taste the freshness of gei wai shrimp.

Participation in this visit is free of charge for HKIEIA members and HK$200 for non-members (to be collected on the day of the visit). The total number of participants is limited to 25. Registration is accepted on a first-come-first-served basis and priority will be given to the members of HKIEIA. The itinerary is as follows:

4:20pm (sharp)	Departure to Mai Po Nature Reserve
5:15pm	Arrival at WWF-Hong Kong car park outside Peter Scott Field Studies Centre
5:30pm-5:45pm	Briefing by nature interpreter
5:30pm-8:30pm	Visiting the Mai Po Nature Reserve
8:30pm	Departure to 78 Tat Chee Avenue, Kowloon Tong and disband

All participants should arrange for your own transportation to the assembly point at Kowloon Tong. It is also advisable for participants to bring your own torch and light meal if necessary.

Adverse weather arrangement: this visit will be cancelled if a typhoon signal No.8 or above, or a black rainstorm warning, is still issued after 2:00pm on 1 Aug 2010 (Sunday). HKIEIA will notify participants for the subsequent arrangement.
